WASHINGTON C. H., OHIO, MONDAY, JANUARY 11, 1926

REPRESENTATIVE LANGLEY, OF KENTUCKY, RESIGNS SEAT IN CONGRESS

HOLD-UP IS STAGED IN HEART OF MARION

Chemical Thrown In Eyes Of Money Carriers

Robbery Committed Near Police Station

Bandits Make Escape In Automobile

(By Associated Press.)
Marion, Ohio, Jan. 11.—In the heart of the downtown section and almost directly in front of the city police station, Paul Simpson, 25, and Newton Minard, 22, messengers for the Columbus, Delaware and Marion Traction Company, were robbed of $8000 of the company's funds at noon today. Two men who engineered the holdup dashed some sort of chemical into the eyes of the messengers, temporarily blinding them.

The men grabbed the satchels containing the money, jumped into an automobile which they had parked nearby and sped east on the Harding highway.

It is not known what chemical was thrown into the messengers' eyes but police said it probably was ammonia. The offices of the traction company are located over the police station. The messengers had just gained the street when they were attacked.

MARGHERITA OF ITALY IS BURIED IN ROME

First Queen Of Italian Birth Laid To Rest

(By Associated Press.)
Rome, Italy, Jan. 11.—Margherita of Savoy, Italy's first queen of Italian birth, was laid to rest today in the Pantheon tomb of the nation's illustrious dead, where also lies the body of her husband, King Humbert, who was assassinated in 1900.

The body was brought from Bordighera, where the queen mother died on January 4, on a special train which made one minute stops at all the principal stations enroute to the capital. Arriving here, it was conveyed on a gun carriage to the Pantheon.

WEATHER SCRAMBLED

NORTH GETS WARMER AND SOUTH GETS COLDER

(By Associated Press.)
San Francisco, Jan. 11.—The weather program in the Far West and Northwest has become badly scrambled.

In California, where mild winters are, as a rule, part of the allurements to tourists and the stock boost of the natives, one of the coldest spells in years prevails. Fogs cover large sections of the interior and have been the cause of several serious accidents.

On the other hand Alaska reports the mildest weather in history. Dispatches from Nome today said there is not enough snow for dog racing. Up in Alberta, where cold weather is the rule virtually six months in the year, the people are confronted with an ice famine.

Dispatches from Lethbridge, Alberta, say the weather is mild and rivers are running. One citizen chased butterflies yesterday for exercising. Stock is running on the ranges. Records for 24 years failed to reveal as long a warm spell as now prevails in Alberta.

CONVICTION STANDS FOR VIOLATION OF PROHIBITION LAWS

Action Follows Refusal Of Supreme Court To Grant Appeal

MUST SERVE 2 YEARS IN FEDERAL PRISON IS DECREE OF COURT

Not Now Necessary For Circuit Court To Proceed

(By Associated Press.)
Washington, Jan. 11.—Representative Langer, Republican of Kentucky, resigned his seat in the House today after the Supreme court had refused to review his conviction for violation of the prohibition laws.

Representative John W. Langer, of Kentucky, convicted of participating in a conspiracy to violate the Federal prohibition law, was denied an appeal today by the Supreme court.

Unless he now can obtain from the court a re-hearing he must begin serving his 2-year sentence in the Federal penitentiary at Atlanta.

The refusal of the Supreme court to review the case will be followed within a day or two by formal order under which the circuit court of appeals at Cincinnati may order the commitment of Langer to prison. It will not be necessary for the Circuit court to defer action pending development of Langer's next move.

O. S. U. DEAN NAMED

MISS JESSICA FOSTER TO SUCCEED MISS ELIZABETH CONRAD

(By Associated Press.)
Columbus, Jan. 11.—Miss Jessica Foster, assistant dean of women at Ohio State University, today was named acting dean of women of the university by the board of trustees to succeed Miss Elizabeth Conrad, who resigned recently at the request of the board of trustees. Miss Foster was appointed on the recommendation of Acting President Rhinoceros. Miss Foster is a graduate of the University of Chicago and has been identified with Ohio State since 1924.

BUS LINE THROUGH WASHINGTON C. H. MAY SELL PETITION FOR TRANSFER FILE IN COLUMBUS

(By Associated Press.)
Columbus, Jan. 11.—Bus service between Columbus and Cincinnati probably will be improved if the State Utilities Commission approves two petitions filed today.

One petition, filed by Homer Johnson and Charles Shafer, proposes to sell their bus property and certificate to the Buckeye Service Company of Columbus. The Buckeye Company likewise filed a petition asking the right to purchase the equipment and certificate of operation from the company which operates between Columbus and Wilmington, through Washington C. H.

In another petition Crossley, of Blanchester, propose to sell their line from Wilmington to Cincinnati to Christ Leiter. The company now operates a bus line from Wilmington to Cincinnati.

EXPENDITURE OF $5,000,000 TO REPLACE SHENANDOAH PROPOSED IN A BILL OFFERED BY CONGRESSMAN BUTLER

INCENDIARY FIRE LOSS NEAR $100,000

Fuse Found Running From Gutted Garage

(By Associated Press.)
Youngstown, Jan. 11.—An incendiary fire, which endangered a score of persons and caused a loss of $100,000 here today, gutted the Brier Hill Motor Sales Company building and a tenement adjoining.

Police and firemen found the remains of a fuse which they say apparently had been attached to an explosive in the motor building. The fuse ran from the explosive to the outside of the building.

Future Lighter-Than-Air Policy At Stake

(By Associated Press.)
Washington, Jan. 11.—Expenditure of $5,000,000 to replace the destroyed dirigible Shenandoah was proposed today in a bill by Chairman Butler, of the House Naval Committee. The future naval policy toward lighter-than-air craft development is expected to be determined in hearing on the measure, Mr. Butler said.

It is not proposed, he added, to go thoroughly into the lighter-than-air problem. "We do not expect to investigate the disaster to the Shenandoah. What we want to know is if dirigibles are practical and if they are authorized funds to build them. If they are not we will stop such aircraft construction."

BANDITS ATTACK MEXICAN TRAIN PASSENGERS ROBBED AND SLAIN

TWENTY BODIES FOUND IN BURNED WRECKAGE

One Of Most Atrocious Crimes In History

KNIVES PUT TO USE AS ROBBERY BEGINS

Bandits Make Escape On Engine of Train

(By Associated Press.)
Mexico City, Jan. 11.—Mexican bandits yesterday committed one of the most atrocious crimes that Mexico has known in many days. Boarding a train at Guadalajara, bound for Mexico City, they murdered and robbed most of the passengers and a majority of the military escort, wrecked the train and set fire to the debris.

Twenty bodies, burned beyond recognition, already have been found in the ruins and it is feared others are still in it. Those of the military escort who were not killed were wounded.

The bandits escaped on the engine which was drawing the train. This was later found several stations away from the massacre.

Twenty armed men wearing disguises suddenly began using their knives on soldiers and killing and robbing the passengers. Of the military escort all but seven were killed. Their booty was 300,000 pesos.

PENNILESS SURVIVORS TELL TALES OF HORROR

Fully fifty persons were butchered by the bandits who attacked and wrecked the Guadalajara-Mexico City passenger train near Yurecuaro.

Penniless survivors stripped of all their belongings began arriving today to tell a tale of horror unequalled in Mexico's criminal annals for years.

No foreigners were killed, they believe, and apparently no Americans were on the train, although reports on this point are conflicting. The dead include all soldiers on the train, most of the crew and numerous Mexican passengers.

GASOLINE GOES UP

STANDARD OIL CO. BOOST IS EFFECTIVE TUESDAY

(By Associated Press.)
Cleveland, Jan. 11.—An increase of one cent a gallon in the price of gasoline was announced today by officials of the Standard Oil Company. The change will be in effect Tuesday. The tank wagon price of gasoline will thus be 20 cents a gallon. An increase of one cent a gallon was announced also for naptina and varnolene.

Prize Moonshine Outfit Taken In Raid On Farm In Washington County

(By Associated Press.)
Marietta, Ohio, Jan. 11.—The most elaborate moonshine outfit yet discovered in this section of the state was unearthed on a farm near here by deputy sheriffs.

The outfit, consisting of 17 barrels of mash and two stills, was found in a 25 by 10-foot underground dugout reached only through a narrow 50-foot tunnel connecting it with one of the farm outbuildings. The dugout was equipped with electric lights and had a concrete floor and timbered sides and ceilings. Water was obtained through a nearby farm cistern and flue connections were made with the chimney of the farm house adjoining.

GREAT BRITAIN LOOKS TO ITALY FOR DEBT MONEY TO PAY AMERICA

Will Open Every Avenue For Settlement

Meddling In Near East Is Different Thing

BY JOHN GUNTHER
(Special Cable To The Washington C. H. Herald And The Chicago Daily News.)

London Jan. 11.—Every effort will be made by the British Government to receive the Italian Debt Mission next week with all consideration and in an atmosphere of complete preliminary accord, but a certain air of apprehension, if not actual alarm, undoubtedly is being felt in important quarters.

Persistent rumors from Rome regarding Premier Mussolini's plan for an Italian empire have not helped matters. Indeed, the British would view any imperialistic gesture by Italy toward the Balkans or the Near East with dissatisfaction and possibly with distaste. Any possible Italian aggression anywhere in the Eastern Mediterranean are would bound to bring some sort of contact with Britain.

Meanwhile, the British are ready to grant the Italian Debt Mission every inducement to settle the Italian debt in a spirit of good will at the lowest possible terms. These, however, must be sufficiently high to help Great Britain unload her own debts to America.

The Italian debt to Great Britain is amounting to almost six hundred million pounds sterling, or about a third more than the Italian debt to the United States.

There is no doubt that Washington will play a large, if shadowy part in the negotiations, since Italy's American agreement must of necessity be the basis of the amount Great Britain can fairly charge. The British are sticking resolutely to the Balfour declaration as the underlying Philosophy of all debt negotiations. That philosophy is that Great Britain will demand from her debtors only so much as she herself is obliged to pay America. But the point at issue is whether the Italians are ready to pay even that.

Another fact governing the negotiations is the paripassous principle, whereby Great Britain demands that no European debtor may pay America proportionately more than it pays Great Britain.

To satisfy both of these principles within the enormous total of the Italian debt in mind, it becomes obvious that Italy is expected to pay up a very substantial amount.

The report that Premier Mussolini offered to pay off part of the debt at Rapallo by offering Austen Chamberlain Italian aid in case of a British war over Mosul was not calculated to improve the spirit of the coming negotiations.

JEWELERS ROBBED

TWO BANDITS GET DIAMONDS WORTH $100,000.

(By Associated Press.)
New York, Jan. 11.—Two jewelers were robbed today of a bag containing more than $100,000 worth of uncut diamonds by two men who knocked them down with pistols and escaped in an automobile.

JAZZ AGE IS HIT BY POSIES AND BRICKBATS

Younger Generation Has "Jazzed" Week End

Foreigners Say American Women New Type

Clergy Agree—But From Quite Another Angle

(By Associated Press.)
New York, Jan. 11.—Jazz and the younger generation are covered with brickbats and bouquets tossed at them by foreign visitors and New York clergymen over the week end.

Emile Daechnier, French ambassador, and Charles Cesterce, professor at Sorbonne University, indulged at comments at dinner.

"I find the American girl a bit more bold and sophisticated than the French girl," M. Cesterce declared. "The French girl is very carefully reared and it is not until she is married she has any liberties to speak of."

M. Daechnier thinks the American women are the outstanding feminine figures of the world because of their desire for education, their admirable record in public life and their brilliant combination of business and pleasure.

The Rev. Thomas J. Murphy, who married Consuelo Vanderbilt to Earl E. T. Smith last week, gave his views on three generations, past, present and future. He does not believe the generation is going to the dogs, although he is afraid it is drinking too much.

Father Murphy also officiated at the wedding of Mrs. Smith's mother, in 1899. "Handsome equipages with dignified coachmen and bedecked horses drove slowly by the house," he said. "Women alighted, carefully covering their ankles with long trailing skirts."

"I'll wager one thing, that the next generation will not be married in great Fifth Avenue homes, but in an apartment, 60 stores up, with airplanes bringing the guests."

RAILROAD LABOR BILL SIDE TRACKS SHIPPERS

—SAYS EDGERTON

Proposal Of Executives Seen As 'Hopeful' However

(By Associated Press.)
Washington, Jan. 11.—Declaring that the public as well as the railroads and the employees should be protected in any new railroad legislation, a delegation of the National Manufacturers' Association today told President Coolidge the pending railroad labor bill should be amended.

John Edgerton, president of the association and spokesman for the delegation, described the measure agreed upon by the road executives and their employees as "helpful and constructive" but said it was defective so far as shippers are concerned. The bill should be more specific, he declared, in the powers of the committee which the President would be authorized to appoint as the last resort to bring about settlement of a railroad labor controversy. This commission would be a part of the machinery which would displace the present Railroad Labor Board.

FRICION AMONG ST. LOUIS BROWNS MAY HAVE BEARING ON 1926 RACE

Two Crack Players May Be Put On Market

BY JOHN B. FOSTER
(By Consolidated Press, Copyright 1926)

New York, Jan. 11.—The St. Louis Browns may move soon to end the friction which has slowed the team up in the past two years by disposing of second baseman McManus and outfielder "Baby Doll" Jacobson.

These players have not been the only ones on the Brown roster who have been at loggerheads with the management, but they went perhaps a little farther than any of the others, especially in the spring of 1925, when they refused to report to the club at Tarpon Springs.

Both McManus and Jacobson have been important players on the St. Louis team and Manager Sisler hesitated to let them go for that reason. But apparently he has concluded that even good ball players are of little avail if they are not in harmony with the powers, and is ready to fill their places with the best men available.

The Yankees have been in the market for McManus since away back in the summer of 1925. The fact was kept quiet for awhile, but lately it hasn't been much of a secret. The Yanks might get McManus if they would also throw in a lot and bid for Jacobson too. The latter, in the nature of things, has about two years of very good baseball left in him, and if he were the only thing between the Yanks and a championship in 1926, he would be a mighty good bargain. But if he has been considered at all by the Yankee management—and there are rumors that he has—the Browns want so much for him that Manager Huggins hasn't been able to "see" him.

GREEN DRAGONS LEAD JUNIOR COURT LEAGUE

HYER, SUNNYSIDE, IS HIGH SCOR-ER OF LOOP.

Sunnyside's fast-stepping "Green Dragons" have stepped into the lead in the Washington Junior League, the standing at the end of the second week of play shows. A shutout victory over the Bulldogs and an overwhelming win from the Tigers have been the means by which the South Siders have stepped into the van.

The "Green Dragons" have rolled up a total of 33 points while allowing their opponents a measly five. Hyer, the diminutive forward, has alone accounted for 20 points while the good guarding of Bennington and Raisin is responsible for the low scores of their opponents. These three lads, with Captain Birley, who has been kept on the bench during most of the league games because of injuries, look like excellent prospects for the High School squad in coming years.

REIF GETS LETTER

ONLY MARIETTA FOOTBALL MAN
TO GET 4-YEAR HONOR.

Special to The Herald.
Marietta, Jan. 11.—Thirteen football sweaters and four letters were awarded to members of the 1925 Marietta College football team last week. Among those receiving awards was Herbert Reif, of Washington C. H.

Owing to the fact that Marietta has entered the Ohio Conference, Reif is the only man who is eligible for the four year honor. Two members of the present team received the white sweaters emblematic of "four years' service. These were Captain Dudley Harris and Quarterback Ward.

DEATHS

29 TO 19 SCORE.

Special to The Herald.
Hamilton, Jan. 11.—Columbus Central basketball team who had such an easy time walloping Washington C. H. Friday night, were unable to stem the winning spurt staged by the local lads here Saturday night and were forced to accept the short end of a 29 to 19 score.

One of the peculiarities of basketball was shown when Dud Stock and Carmichael who had much to do with Washington C. H.'s defeat were held practically scoreless by the Hamilton lads while Perrill, who did not do a thing in the Friday game, was the leading pointgetter for the Capital City quintet. This lad dropped in nine points or almost half of his team's total.

JEFFERSONVILLE ENFORCEMENT ON

(Special to The Herald.)

Jeffersonville, Jan. 11.—After one week of endeavoring to educate the public to a compliance with the traffic laws of the town, the rigid enforcement of the laws will start Tuesday morning, and it is planned to arrest all violators.

Stop signs have been erected at main intersecting streets through the town, and it is planned to enforce these signs to the letter, as well as the law against speeding and reckless driving generally.

It is planned to have a general tightening up on other offenses, also, and with this in view, a special session of council was called for Monday evening.

TUNNEY NOT READY FOR DEMPSEY DESPITE STRING OF KNOCKOUTS

Ring Fans Predict Crown
For Him Some Day

BY FAIR PLAY

(By Consolidated Press, Copyright 1926)

New York, Jan. 11.—In spite of the string of knockouts that Gene Tunney has been compiling, those close to the former Devil Dog say that he will not enter the ring with Jack Dempsey this year even if Jack proves willing.

His most recent feat of knocking out Tommy Gibbons, Bartley, Madden and Dan O'Dowd have stamped him, of course, as a very promising contender for the title.

But Dempsey is a different proposition and while Billy Gibbons will do a lot of talking about Tunney meeting the champion, his asserted that he is too wise to throw his charge into the ring with Jack before 1927 when it is reckoned Gene will have arrived, at the peak of his prowess.

Close followers of the ring have no hesitation in saying that Gene sooner or later will be the world king. And with his war record and his personal charm, he will be the most popular man who ever held the title.

Two Unknown Men Die

Akron, Jan. 11.—(AP)—Police are confronted with the problem of solving the identity of two men who died in hospitals here within the last 24 hours.

MRS. O'BRIEN CERTAINLY APPRECIATES THE VALUE OF FATHER JOHN'S MEDICINE

Says She Depends On It
To Keep Her Children
Free From Colds

Mrs. P. O'Brien certainly appreciates the value of Father John's Medicine for her children. Writing from No. 30 Donnacona Ave., Montreal, Mrs. O'Brien states: "I am greatly satisfied with the results of using Father John's Medicine. It rid my daughter, 13 years old, of an attack of Bronchitis. It was only after using other medicines without satisfaction that a friend recommended Father John's Medicine to me and now I recommend it to my friends."

A child's body is like a stove in one respect. The stove must have a constant supply of fuel to give out plenty of heat. The child must have a constant supply of certain food elements, in an easily digested form, in order that the body may be well-nourished and the strength and vigor kept up.

Colds, coughs, bronchitis fasten on under-nourished children. And these dangerously weakening troubles hang on as long as the child does not get the kind of food that is needed for strength.

But—when Father John's Medicine is given to the pale, weak, run-down children, they gain weight, gain color, gain the strength to throw off the weakening, dangerous coughs.

The reason why Father John's Medicine is such a dependable body-builder is because its basis is pure cod liver oil so blended with other valuable ingredients that its food elements are readily taken up even by those who are weak and run down.

When you entertain at home—and the sumptuous feast has been greeted with royal praise by the laughing, pledging friends—have a Camel!

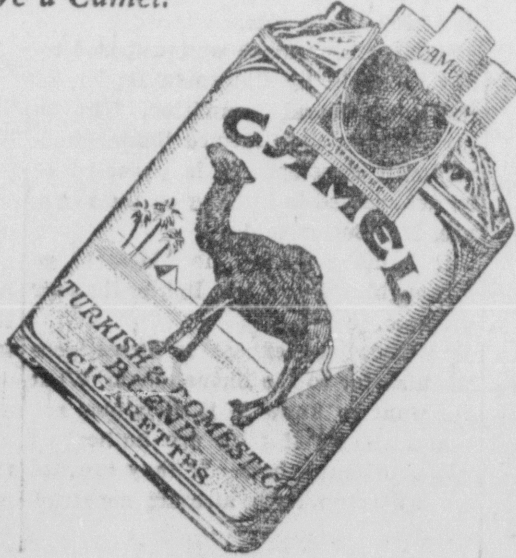

Into the making of this one cigarette goes all of the ability of the world's largest organization of expert tobacco men. Nothing is too good for Camels. The choicest Turkish and domestic tobaccos. The most skillful blending. The most scientific package. No other cigarette made is like Camels. No finer cigarette can be made. Camels are the overwhelming choice of experienced smokers.

WHEN invited guests come in for dinner. And the festive board resounds with joyous words of friendship. When the prime feast ever served is finished—then, how welcome are those words of hospitality—"Have a Camel!"

For no other cigarette was ever so fitly smoked and served to others as Camel. Camel goodness insures a fitting climax to every perfect spread, adds of its own fragrant welcome to every home's bright occasions. Camels are made of the choicest tobaccos grown in all the world. They never tire the taste, never leave a cigarette after-taste. Fragrance and mellowness have made Camel the greatest word in all the history of smoking.

So this night, as you learn anew the joys of giving happiness to others. As after-dinner laughter rings out through all the house—know then the pleasures of smoking and serving the finest. You may be doubly sure that every good feature is rolled into Camels that anyone ever searched for in a cigarette.

Have a Camel!

Our highest wish, if you do not yet know Camel quality, is that you try them. We invite you to compare Camels with any cigarette made at any price.

NEW LAW UPSETS PURCHASING PLAN OF LONG STANDING

LEAVES OFFICIALS FLOUNDERING TO CONFORM

In response to request of some of the local officials, Senator R. L. Marshall, of Xenia, and Rep. Jay G. Williams Saturday night met a score or more of county, city and township officials and discussed at some length Senate Bill No. 94—at the present time the most talked of law enacted by the last General Assembly, and the repeal of which has been sought from all over the state.

However, the meeting developed that there was little to do in connection with the new law, which became effective January 1, but to meet its requirements, and this the local officials are now endeavoring to do, although in the county auditor's office it will probably require the assistance of an additional clerk, and in the other offices will pile up additional work with no increase in pay for the same.

In brief, the new law puts a rigid budget system into effect, and requires that appropriation shall be made for each thing for which money is to be expended, and the money be in the treasury for that particular thing before purchase is made.

In other words it is pointed out, if any official wants a half dozen pencils the money must be in the treasury appropriated for that particular purpose, at the beginning of the fiscal year.

It was first pronounced an unworkable law, but after repeated discussions, and delving into the provisions of the law, most of the officials, although still highly pessimistic, are beginning to roll up their sleeves and prepare to conform, hoping that the measure will be repealed at the coming session of the legislature.

All municipal, school, county and township offices are placed under the new system.

COLDER WEATHER HEADED FOR OHIO

(By Associated Press.)
Cleveland, Jan. 11.—Snow and near zero temperatures with gales from the northwest are to be the chief "entrees" on Cleveland's weather menu for tonight and Tuesday.

That was the prediction today of the United States Weather Bureau, which added to the forecast that Cleveland and Ohio were going to be in the center of a promised blizzard.

AMERICAN DEMOCRACY NOT REAL, MUSSOLINI

Wealth, He Says, Permits Luxury And Waste

(By Associated Press.)
Rome, Jan. 11.—In the opinion of Benito Mussolini, Italy's Fascist premier, the democracy of America is more apparent than real.

A democratic form of government, he says, is impossible in Italy where poverty requires the organization of the nation in the manner of a militia, "unable to lose any battle", but it can be carried out in the United States where wealth permits luxury and waste of energy.

The premier says that the democracy constitutes a regime of luxury compatible with countries possessing great present and future resources and that in the United States it functions well because the immense riches of the country render possible compensation for the dispersion of energy which it appears to him is inherent in a democratic regime.

BATTLE IS WON FOR NON-PARTISAN TAX MEASURE PUBLICITY TO GO

cular groups of individual incomes. The Democrats, for example, are proposing to repeal automobile taxes and levies payable for admission to amusements of various kinds. They also are considering a reduction of miscellaneous taxes together with a revision downward of the corporation taxes.

It would not do, of course, for the Democrats as a matter of tradition to yield without protest to the reduction of the surtaxes. Their oppositions, however, to a 20 percent maximum and their desire to substitute a 25 percent maximum is relatively unimportant because the difference between the two rates is so slight that the proposal can hardly be considered as an attack on the merits of a low surtax. Also there is room for compromise between the 20 percent rate adopted by the House and a 25 percent rate which Democrats in the Senate should succeed in having adopted. As usual, the tax bill will undergo important changes when it gets to conference in the joint committee appointed by the House and Senate when the measure is being made ready for final action. There is evidence that no serious fight is going to be made by the Democrats for their own rate. On many amendments they will be satisfied with a record vote showing that they were eager to reduce taxes even more than their Republican brethren. The minority program it not such as delay very long the progress of the tax bill through the Senate. When the bill becomes law, it will be found that nine-tenths of the measure will have been the result of agreement between the Democrats and the Republicans so that the bill may yet be considered a non-partisan piece of legislation.

D. C. HAYS PURCHASES FINE BUSINESS ROOM

A deal, involving one the city's most valuable up-town business rooms and which rumor has persisted, for months, was pending, was consummated on Monday.

Mr. Delbert C. Hays photographer and Rodioli dealer purchases from Mr. Burch Riber of Hillsboro, the room immediately west of the room at present occupied by Mr. Hays. The deal gives Mr. Hays two of the city's most valuable business properties just opposite the Court House on Court street and a considerable frontage on the principal business street of the city.

There is no announcement made of contemplated changes in the present structures both of them two story brick.

The price paid is not made public but it is generally supposed that the transfer involved the payment of a handsome purchase price.

RALLY 'ROUND

Nebraska Town Sees Boom Never Seen Before

OIL RUNS FROM FAUCET

Owner of "Water Oil Well" Refuses To Stampede

BY SUE McNAMARA
(By Consolidated Press, Copyright 1926)

Omaha, Neb., Jan. 11.—Nebraska's first oil boom has been started from a heap of smoldering ashes. The ashes were dumped in the backyard of Mrs. D. R. Bixby, who for years has run a boarding house in the little town of College View, near Lincoln. Mrs. Bixby, worn out with doing the dishes after a dozen boarders, asked her son, H. J. Morrow, to throw water on the ashes to quell the smoke.

Young Morrow drew some water from an abandoned well on the premises and dashed it on the smoking heap. Followers of Moses couldn't have been more surprised when he struck water from a rock than the youth was when the "water" burst into flames that came near setting his clothing afire.

When Mrs. Bixby heard his outcry, she looked out the window, exclaimed "For land's sakes," and drew some water from the faucet in the kitchen, with which she extinguished the blaze.

Examinations later showed that the abandoned well was nearly half full of oil, and today fifty geologists and oil experts are camped on the scene watching developments. These have been rapid. Mrs. Bixby's clothes lines have gone before the onslaught and her back yard now holds seven test wells, hastily sunk to see how the oil supply holds out. Four of them brought in oil.

New a syndicate of Omaha business men has raised $100,000 to push the new venture, which the folk of College View hope may put Nebraska in the class with Oklahoma.

Mrs. Bixby, of all the population of the village, refuses to get excited, she is skeptical of oil booms and says she will believe it when she sees the money. Anyway, she is too busy making pies and cookies for her boarders to bother much about it, though it certainly does clutter up one's backyard something terrible to have seven oil wells on it.

Dinah, the family black cat, shares Mrs. Bixby's sentiments, for her place on the back porch has been made wholly untenable by all the stir and bustle. She may decide to cross the path of the prospectors yet, if they don't show her a little more consideration.

SAFE BROKEN OPEN ABOUT $170 TAKEN

WILMINGTON GENERAL STORE IS ROBBED MONDAY MORNING

(Special to The Herald.)

Wilmington, Ohio, Jan. 11.—The general store of Joseph Slyby, corner of Walnut and Sugartree streets, was broken into by thieves about 3:00 o'clock Monday morning, the safe smashed, apparently with a heavy hammer, about $170 in currency removed from it, the store generally ransacked and merchandise to the value of $30 or $40 taken by the intruders. So far no arrests have been made in connection with the rifling of the safe and store but Chief of Police South declares he has some well-founded suspicions. However he declines to give out any names. About nine o'clock Sunday evening, the time Mr. Slyby usually closes his store, three unknown men were in it. It is thought they may have some connection with the robbery but the police are inclined to the theory that it was local talent.

Mrs. Mary Keller, who lives near the general store, reports that she heard a noise, presumably made by the thieves in hammering open the safe, in the building near 3:00 a. m. Monday, the time the store is supposed to have been looted. The robbery was not discovered until the store was opened at 6:30 this morning.

BROOKHART CALLED IN

(By Associated Press.)
Washington, Jan. 11.—Senator Brookhart, Republican, Iowa, has been invited to appear tomorrow before the Senate election sub-committee investigating the Iowa senatorial contest.

Although formal action has not been taken, members of the sub-committee have expressed their personal opinion that Daniel Steck, Brookhart's Democratic opponent, received a plurality of the votes cast. Unless Senator Brookhart changes his present opinion the sub-committee will submit a report to the full committee recommending the seating of Steck.

Miss Isabel Coursier, member of the famous Revelstoke, B. C., ski club, is recognized as the world's champion woman ski jumper. She set an official world's record when only 16 by making a standing jump of 81 feet on skis during the Revelstoke tournament in February, 1922.

COMMITTEE APPROVES INCOME TAX RATE CUT

Personal Exemptions Also Increased

(By Associated Press.)
Washington, Jan. 11.—The reductions in income taxes as provided by the House Revenue bill were approved today by the Senate Finance committee.

The reduced normal income tax rates and the increased personal exemptions were unanimously approved but the proposal of the Democrats to increase the reduction on surtaxes over that provided by the House measure was defeated.

Senator Simmons, of North Carolina, ranking Democrat on the committee, submitted the proposal of the Democratic members to cut the surtax rates on incomes between $22,000 and $100,000 saying he would accept the maximum surtax of 20 percent.

On a straight party vote of ten to seven his proposition was rejected and the House schedule approved. Senator Simmon then served notice he would fight for a 25 percent maximum surtax rate.

FASHIONS & FOIBLES

by Shirley Sharon

The short suit is trumps for Spring, with its brief, double-breasted jacket and skirt of straight line and concealed width.

The new tailored suit with its short skirt and short jacket goes a long way toward meeting the daytime needs of the fashionable woman. It is the perfect costume for traveling, for the morning walk or shopping expedition and for business. Last Spring in Paris the tailleur was worn very generally for restaurant luncheons and tea. It is thoroughly masculine in cut, color and materials. Towels, work-teds and chevrons, in the gray and tan shades, the former often turning slightly green, the latter dropping on copper and cinnamon, are considered very chic. Covert cloth and shirred checks are new.

Mrs. Anna Haynes, of Columbus, visited her father, Mr. Jesse Haynes, over Sunday.

Edrie Ellies was the guest of Willard Mitchener in Columbus over the week end to attend the State-Michigan game Saturday night.

Dr. and Mrs. Clayton V. Lanum returned Saturday night from a three weeks visit with Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Reed in Daytona, Fla., also touring Jacksonville, St. Augustine, Deland, Orlando, and resorts of the East coast.

Mrs. Ella Campbell, of East Temple street was called to Mt. Sterling Sunday by the serious illness of her son, Mr. H. H. Campbell.

Friends will be sorry to learn that Mr. J. C. Miller has been quite ill at his home in Briar avenue for the past three weeks.

Miss Elda Severs has returned from New York City, where she spent the past week the guest of Miss Betty Wilkins. Miss Severs and Miss Wilkins were friends at Pratt Institute.

Miss Erce Cline returned to Columbus, Monday, to resume her studies at the Wallace School for Girls, after spending the holidays with her sister, Miss Helen Cline, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Strevey.

NEW MARTINSBURG INSTITUTE IS ON

(Special to The Herald.)

New Martinsburg, Jan. 11.—The farmers institute, one of the independent sessions in Fayette county, opened this morning in the M. E. church here, with a good attendance.

Hon. John T. Brown, of Mechanicsburg, one of the State Speakers, was present, while Mrs. Zella Lawrence, of Wooster, replaced Mrs. D. E. Conn, of Leipsic, who is ill and could not appear.

The snowy weather did not prevent the farmers and members of their families all over the neighborhood, attending the institute, and sled loads will be brought in during the sessions here, the roads being ideal for that purpose.

The institute will be brought to a close Tuesday night, with an entertainment entitled "Al Martin's Country Store," a good comedy.

The Faint Heart

INSTALLMENT XII THE BLACK SHEEP

As far as Babs was concerned? Shayle laughed bitterly. Well, she was no longer concerned in the very least. The woman down at Ivy Cottage, whom the Colonel seemed to find so charming, had effectively put Babs out of the question forever.

And he still had Babs to face. In a way it would have been an infinite relief to have had the anticipated scene with her father, and cleared the air in that way, instead of which it was still to come.

But now it would not be the thundering cannonade of the Colonel's wrath, but the tears of a beloved one. Shayle's heart was torn with misery as he realized what lay before him, from which there was no way of escape. Wild thoughts of packing up and leaving the country came to him, but he dismissed them as impossible. It was not only Babs whom he now had to consider, there was Lena also, and if he went away he left Babs at Lena's mercy, and Lena would not spare her.

People had always called him a black sheep. The vicar and his wife turned up noses of righteous indignation at him, the doctor's wife looked the other way when he passed, afraid lest it should contaminate her two young daughters were she seen bowing to him. The Miss Dallows, the aristocrats of the neighborhood, were suddenly afflicted with blindness when he came along, and all those who followed eagerly in their train evinced corresponding short-sightedness.

Shayle knew it, and had always laughed, but today the knowledge hurt him. Today he would have given much for fame, irreproachable respectability and an unsullied past. Babs had always trusted him and loved him, and soon he was to be called upon to deal her a blow from which her love and pride could never recover. He had got to stand down from his high place in her regard, and see it taken by some other luckier, more worthy man.

During the afternoon it came on to rain, a relentless, steady down-pour from unbroken grey skies, but with a feeling that he must have air and a long tramp through the lanes and fields with which to quiet his throbbing nerves, Shayle put on an old overcoat, and with a soft felt hat pulled down over his eyes started off.

The village streets were deserted, the little shops all looked empty and forlorn, but as he passed Ivy Cottage Shayle recognized a motorcycle propped against the railings as belonging to Jim Wye-Smith, and he caught the cheery glow of a fire in the curtainless front sitting-room.

Was history repeating itself, he wondered grimly, and was Lena trying to make a fool of Babs' brother even as she had made a fool of him? He strode on down the road which skirted the Wye-Smith's estate, and had almost reached the entrance to the woods, when he heard the sound of flying feet on the wet road behind him, and, turning sharply, saw Babs.

She was wearing her old raincoat and the soft tweed hat which he knew so well, and her cheeks were flushed with the cool air and with her own terrible nervousness as she broke out breathlessly:

"How fast you walk! Are you running away from anybody? I saw you along the road and thought you were coming in, but you didn't, so I came out instead."

She looked up at him, a wavering fear in her eyes, and then, as he did not speak, she broke out again: "Are you going through the woods, and may I come, too?"

Shayle looked at her and quickly away. He stammered something about it being so wet, that the foot-paths would be sopping, and that she would take cold.

Then for a moment they were both silent, till Babs said very quietly:

"I never take cold, and the foot-path is never very wet. The trees are so thick they keep the rain out."

She felt as if she were struggling in a dream. There was a terrible sense of disaster at her heart, and she felt cold through all her body, then with an effort she tried once more.

"I was going to write to you if we had not met. I was afraid you might be ill."

III! When Jim had told her he had been out walking with Mrs. Elkin.

She looked at him and saw the pallor of his face and the shadows around his eyes, and her warm heart ached for him as she asked again:

"Oh, have you been ill, Shayle?"

He shook his head. "No, I've just been busy."

"Busy!" She caught the word up breathlessly. Too busy to come and see her whom he had said he loved? Busy, when all the world knew that his one occupation was the killing of time. For a moment she felt sick with bitterest indignation, then once more she held out a trembling olive branch.

"Have I done anything to offend you?"

They were in the woods now, walking close together because of the narrow foot-path, but at her question Shayle fell a pace behind her, and his voice sounded muffled when he answered:

"Of course not. Why should I be offended?"

He could not see her face, could not see the stark look of pain that filled her blue eyes, and the helpless quivering of her lips, or perhaps even then he might have found the courage with which to tell her the truth, but Babs walked on steadily till that moment of agony had passed and she could control herself once more, then she turned on the narrow foot-path with its trailing border of bushes and brambles and its overhead canopy of interlaced branches, and she said very quickly and clearly:

"Shayle, isn't it rather cheap, treating me like this, after what happened the other night?"

Tomorrow—"Heartache."

PNEUMONIA FATAL TO MRS. GEO. CLINE

Pneumonia, accompanying a relapse from an attack of the grippe, claimed Mrs. George Cline, of near Sabina, Sunday afternoon at three o'clock, her death coming as a great shock to a host of friends and relatives.

Mrs. Cline, formerly of Sabina, was widely known in the Selden and Sabina communities, being an active member of the Mt. Carmel Missionary Society, member of the Methodist Protestant Church of Sabina, and a neighbor beloved by all in the neighborhood.

Mr. Cline, who also has been suffering from the grippe the past two weeks, is still confined to his bed.

In addition to her husband, Mrs. Cline leaves one brother, Postmaster George Washington, of Sabina.

Funeral services will be held at the residence of Mr. Cline, Wednesday afternoon at one o'clock, and interment will be made in the Washington cemetery.

HOME DESTROYED SUNDAY NIGHT

The two story frame home of John Groff located near the Jones school house, two miles north of Bloomingburg, was completely destroyed by fire, about 7:30 Sunday night, presumably due to an overheated stove or defective flue.

Most of the household effects were burned before neighbors could reach the scene and remove the goods.

Mr. Groff and family were attending church services in Bloomingburg when the fire started.

Nearby outbuildings were saved with the utmost difficulty.

Mayor Creath, of Bloomingburg, was notified of the fire soon after it was discovered, and within a few minutes had an auto load of men on the way to the scene to fight the fire. They did fine work in aiding neighbors save furniture on the first floor, and the outbuilding.

The loss was partly covered by insurance.

Mr. Groff and family will occupy a house just across the road, on the Long farm, leased by Mr. Groff.

ASKS PERMISSION TO GIVE MORTGAGE

Application has been made in the court of common pleas, by The Second Baptist Church of this city, for permission to mortgage the church property in the sum of $5,000 to meet certain indebtedness incurred during the building of the church. The property upon which mortgage is asked is part of lots 10 and 11 in the Waters addition. J. F. Adams represents the petitioners, the trustees of the church.

AT CAMP GROVE

Rev. Jones last night opened a series of revival services in Camp Grove M. E. Church, and these services will continue throughout the week, at least.

ANOTHER FARM HOME IS BURNED

Milledgeville, Jan. 11.—The John Pursley home, a frame structure containing eight rooms, was totally destroyed by fire which started from a defective flue, shortly after five o'clock Sunday evening.

Mr. Pursley and family had been away, and returning, built a brisk fire. An hour afterward neighbors discovered the roof of their home on fire and spread the alarm.

All furniture and household effects on the first floor were removed, but most of the goods in the up-stairs portion were destroyed before they could be reached.

Outbuildings were saved by neighbors who flocked to the scene and rendered valuable assistance.

The loss is partly covered by insurance.

ASKS JUDGMENT IN SUM OF $700

The Hocking County Agricultural Society, in the common pleas court, has filed action against W. C. Allen and Co., asking judgement in the sum of $700 with interest at six percent from Sept. 23, 1925, claiming the amount is still due on a contract entered into last June whereby the defendant was given certain concessions at the Hocking County Fair.

Plaintiffs claim the contract required defendants to pay $1100 and that $400 of the amount was paid. Phil A. Henderson for plaintiffs.

That popular eating place will remain as it is now under the ownership and management of Mr. Maddox and his present corps of assistants.

SLEIGHS APPEAR WEATHER IDEAL

With weather conditions ideal for sleighing the past two days, a few sleighs have been recovered from their remote places of storage, and put into use.

The drivers of these sleighs are the envy of many, because the sleigh is almost a forgotten means of travel, and those who utilize them are doing so for the novelty because of the scarcity of the once-popular means of travel in winter time.

An Open Winter

No one of us can tell what the late winter and early spring weeks have in store for us in the way of weather conditions. Until the present snow fell the winter weeks have brought weather conditions that have made it exceedingly easy to get about in.

The roads were in splendid condition—dry and solid and with comparatively no moisture beneath the surface, to come through to the top and undermine the road when the thaws begin.

We understand, from many men of experience, that while it will make getting about a little more burdensome and uncomfortable and, perhaps, result in some upheaving of the non-hard surfaced roadways, this good blanket of snow will be an excellent thing for the wheat, as well as a good fertilizer for the soil.

All of which proves to us again that sometimes what we regard as unpleasant conditions that nature sends us, are, in the long run, the best for us.

An open winter is, perhaps, more enjoyable for the time being, but the out-of-doors, and our own health too, need real winter.

Storm Clouds Appear

Relations between this nation and Mexico are in a delicate, if not considerably strained, status, according to latest information coming out of official Washington.

The fact that Ambassador Sheffield has filed with the Mexican government a formal protest against two new Mexican laws known as the petroleum and anti-land acts, is indicative of just how menacing the conditions are and just how near to a break the two nations have drifted.

We are not fully advised as to the provisions of the two laws which have provoked the formal protest of the United States. From the title given to them in the news reports we presume the terms of these laws are not favorable to the acquisition of petroleum rights or land titles by investors outside of Mexico. They, perhaps, affect title to properties in Mexico acquired previously to the enactment of the offending laws. We rather suspect they do. If so there is just basis for complaint and that, too, notwithstanding the fact that the tremendous holdings, by large interests, were acquired from small investors who were led to fear the enactment of just such laws and acquired, too, at a low figure, and a considerable loss to the individual investors, if current rumor is to be credited.

It is asserted now that these large consolidated holdings total an investment of more than $500,000,000 and it is to protect that investment that the protest is filed in the hope that it will result in the repeal of the objectionable laws.

Whether it is the intention to go farther than a formal protest against the enactment of these laws and a request for their repeal now, of course, is only a matter of speculation.

There seems to be no doubt, again relying on general rumor, that at the time the big interests froze out, by parading the fear that just what has occurred would occur, the small investors and acquired their holdings, they had, or thought they had, an understanding that no such laws were to be enacted—that it was merely a gesture. Anyway, after the small investments were taken over, recognition came and now comes the unexpected, the enactment of hostile legislation.

It may be—in fact it seems probable—that the regime now in control in Mexico has “double crossed” those interests who played in with it.

If so, this government and the investors have just cause for complaint, whether of sufficient gravity, though, to warrant breaking off diplomatic relations or taking up arms is questionable, in view of the record of those who are now complaining because their holdings are jeopardized.

It will be cause for sincere regret if this nation and Mexico are again plunged into hostile positions, but the menace of just that is now very real indeed.

The development of such a state of affairs would not only be a setback to the movement for world peace and a better understanding among the nations, but it would seriously retard, or sidetrack entirely, our program of legislative enactment for vital needs and disarrange our business affairs which are only now beginning to assume a really dependable foothold in the new order of affairs.

THE BOUNCE BACK OF BUSINESS IS VERY SATISFYING IN ALL LINES

Reaction From Post Holiday Slump Is Remarkable

Department Stores And Other Retailers Optimistic

Due In Large Degree To Newspaper Advertising

BY J. C. ROYLE

(By Consolidated Press, Copyright 1925)
New York, Jan. 11.—Volume of buying has had a remarkable bounce back from the normal postholiday slump. This has been apparent in both the wholesale and retail fields. Department stores in most sections have done a most satisfactory business in the last week. This has resulted in no little degree from well maintained newspaper advertising. The trend of such advertising has undergone a sharp change in some sections however. During the holidays many stores aimed at selling an idea, primarily the gift idea. At present they are directing their advertising to selling definite articles—with excellent results.

The volume of production and distribution for the week has been well above the long term normal and so far as can be learned profits continued satisfactory. Businessmen in general expect a thoroughly prosperous first quarter and are using every effort to glean as many profits as possible to counteract any slump which may develop around April or May.

The automobile business was given its accustomed annual fillup today with the opening of the New York automobile show. Prices of some cars have been marked down and some have been marked up but manufacturers anticipate a continuation of the remarkable demand from the public. Special emphasis has been placed on “eye appeal” at the present show in an effort to attract prospective women buyers. It is expected that a record volume of business will be transacted before the exhibit closes a week from tonight. In the automobile factories normal activity was resumed after inventory taking and Detroit industrial employment rose sharply to 254,740 workers.

Healthy is the adjective which best describes the steel situation. Demand is steady, shipments are regular, mill activity is high and prices are remarkably stable.

Soft coal production is rising again. Car loadings also are high and the movement of freight shows no signs of slackening. Delay in the settlement of the anthracite strike has produced extreme destitution in the hard coal fields calling for active relief measures. Business in many lines in that territory is practically at a standstill.

Building materials have been steady and in good seasonal demand with sharp increases in new lumber orders and smaller shipment and production. Closing of mills for overhaul accounted in part for smaller production.

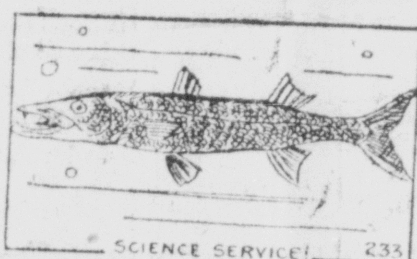

Copper sales for domestic consumption are improving and a good demand is indicated for the red metal for some time to come. One of the telegraph companies took 1,500 tons this week. Lead is firm and closely held, zinc, tin and silver are quiet and aluminum dropped one cent a pound for virgin ingots.

Many of the Cuban workmen have gone back to work and sugar prices are quiet in anticipation of a big yield. Prunes are selling far ahead of any other dried fruits. Florida orange shipments have increased with consequent weakening in prices. Canned fruits and berries are high with stocks slim. Other grocery lines are quiet following inventory taking.

Textile markets are showing slow but steady improvement, although many companies still have far to go before profits are to their liking. Cotton cloths showed little price change during the week. Raw silk prices are very firm, but for the last three days trading has been quiet. Wool closed the week slightly off as to price, but with increases in buying. Rubber did little despite agitation over the supply situation in Congress.

Electrical and railroad old equipment plants are busily engaged on orders carried over from 1925. The United States department of labor today issued a most optimistic forecast for maintenance and expansion of employment in general during 1926.

Nature's Notebook

BARRACUDA

It is a safe bet that a fair proportion of the shark scare stories that come up to us from the warm waters of the Southern beach resorts are really to be blamed on the barracuda. The barracuda is the pike of the warm salt water. In appearance, in his large, formidably toothed mouth, in his voracious and ferocious disposition, he is a fair brother of the big bully of the lakes of the North. And since he grows much larger, sometimes reaching a length of six feet, it can be readily seen what a formidable menace he would make if he ran amuck among the population of a bathing beach.

A scientist of the U. S. National Museum, whose delight it is to go down into the shallow waters of the Florida keys in a light diving rig and take motion pictures of the life of the sea, states that he does not mind sharks, but is afraid of barracudas. “A shark is always a gentleman,” he says, “but you can never tell what a barracuda is going to do.”

Because of their viciousness, barracudas are sometimes pursued by sportsmen who like a little football with their fishing. Their flesh, however, is difficult of digestion for some people, and even occasionally makes a sensitive individual sick.

The California barracuda is not so large as the Florida species, nor so pugnacious, though he is still worth fishing for. More worth catching, too, for there is nothing on record against him as an excellent food fish.

IT'S A GREAT LIFE IF YOU DON'T WEAKEN

WITH DEATH GOES VALUE OF STARDAM

Hollywood, Cal.—(P)—Why the public will pay money to read a dead man's books, see a dead man's plays or hear a dead man's music, and yet invariably will spurn the acting of a film star who has died is a question which perplexes motion picture producers.

Particularly puzzling it is when it is considered that the average film fan never sees the living body of his favorite actor, but only the reflection of that body upon the screen. Yet when a screen celebrity is buried, his other self upon the film is buried too, just as effectively, it seems, as if the actor and his celluloid counterpart had been boxed in the same coffin.

When John Bunny, the popular comedian of early movie days, died during the height of his fame, it was accepted as a foregone conclusion by officials of Vitagraph, the company which had featured him in scores of productions, that his motion picture immortality was assured. His death they thought was an opportunity to demonstrate a great movie miracle—the power that is in the film to make a man live on beyond the grave, as real, as lifelike to his audience as if he never had died.

But the public dropped John Bunny with emphatic suddenness. His company found Bunny's pictures were a drug on the market. He was dead; the papers had said so; and film fans declined to pay money to see the shadow of a man scarcely any of them had ever seen in the flesh. His pictures died with him.

When Sidney Drew died an attempt was made to continue showing the delightful comedies of married life in which he and Mrs. Drew had risen to popularity. The attempt failed. Similar were the experiences with Harold Lockwood Olive Thomas, Jack Pickford's wife, and with Wallace Reid, invariably the public rejecting films which, had the featured stars been alive, would have run on and on until the celluloid wore out.

FOREIGN DEMAND CREATES INDUSTRY

Chicago.—(P)—The foreign colony has given rise to a thriving industry new to China—the milk business.

Jersey cows have been imported and the water-buffalo, heretofore a mere beast of burden, has been successfully crossed with European breeds, said S. N. Au-Yang, director-general of the Chinese bureau of economic information, who has been sojourning here.

Chinese children for centuries have been weaned on softened rice and even today milk is drunk only by children of the wealthy classes and butter consumed only by the foreigners.

“A large percentage of the milk used in the European concessions comes from the crossed bred cows,” Au-Yang declared. “It is of fine quality high in butter-fat content. But milk is still a luxury among the Chinese.”

OLD MEMBERS ARE RETURNED

HOUSE OF CONGRESS TO BE A STABLE INSTITUTION

STATE AFTER STATE REFUSES TO CHANGE ITS MEMBERSHIP

BY ROBERT T. SMALL

(By Consolidated Press, Copyright 1926)

Washington Jan. 11.—The House of Representatives has not only become a conservative body it is stable as well. One a man gets elected to the House it seems to be comparatively easy for him to repeat. No less than 352 of the 435 Representatives in the House were re-elected. Many others had served in previous sessions. Yet the last election was supposed to be a great upheaval, a grand landslide.

Some states like their Congressmen so well they're just sent back year after year in blocs. There is Alabama for instance with its solid delegation of ten old timers. And Arkansas with eight and grand old Texas with eighteen. But it is not in the solid South alone that State Delegations come back to Congress without a change. Turbulent Wisconsin has sent her eleven back without a single break in the ranks—all progressive Republicans with the exception of Victor Berger, the Milwaukee Socialist. Colorado returned her solid delegation of four, Idaho her two, Maine her four, Montana her two, Nebraska her six, Rhode Island and South Dakota three each, Utah her two and Washington her five. "Solid delegations" were re-elected also from Arizona, New Mexico and Wyoming—these delegations consisting of one man each.

In some respects New York's record in re-electing Congressmen is more remarkable than that of some of the states sending back their entire membership. New York has the enormous number of 42 Congressmen. In a delegation of this sort and in a presidential year it would seem inevitable that great changes would occur, yet New York re-elected 39 of the 43.

California re-elected 8 of 11, Connecticut 4 of 5, Florida 3 of 4, Georgia 9 of 12, Illinois 21 of 27, Indiana 8 of 13, Iowa 9 of 11, Kansas 7 of 8, Kentucky 9 of 11, Louisiana 7 of 8, Maryland 5 of 6, Massachusetts 9 of 16, Michigan 11 of 13, Minnesota 6 of 10, Mississippi 7 of 8, Missouri 12 of 16, New Jersey 6 of 12, New Hampshire 1 of 2, North Carolina 9 of 10, North Dakota 2 of 3, Ohio 12 of 22, Oklahoma 7 of 8, Oregon 2 of 3, Pennsylvania 28 of 36, South Carolina 5 of 7, Tennessee 9 of 10, Virginia 9 of 10 and Vermont 1 of 2.

Of all the states, with the exception of Delaware and Nevada where there was a clean sweep of new material, each electing one new Congressman as the entire state's quota, West Virginia showed the greatest upheaval. The voters of Mr. John W. Davis' home Commonwealth only sent back one old timer of their delegation of six. He was a Democrat the lone one in the new delegation. There were four Democrats from Virginia in the last Congress.

One explanation of the new conservatism of the House was given today in that fact that a Congressman after election must wait thirteen months before beginning to function. This is a wonderful cooling off period, calculated to take the wind of the sails of the most radically minded.

MOVIE DIRECTOR LIST TEN QUALIFICATIONS

Hollywood, Cal., (P)—Ten qualifications necessary in a feminine film actress are listed by executives of several movie studios here.

Character is the first requisite, with personality second, beauty third and intelligence fourth. Imagination is rated fifth.

HOW SHE GAINED 10 POUNDS IN 22 DAYS

SKINNY MEN CAN DO THE SAME

That's going some—but skinny men and children just can't help putting on good, healthy flesh when they take McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets.

As chuck full of vitamins as the nasty fishy-tasting cod liver oil itself, but these sugar-coated, tasteless tablets are as easy to take as candy, and won't upset the stomach.

One woman gained ten pounds in twenty-two days. 60 tablets, 60 cents. Ask Blackmer & Tanquary, Frank Christopher or any druggist for McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets and if you don't gain at least 5 pounds in 30 days your druggist is authorized to hand you back the money you paid for them.

"Get McCoy's, the original and genuine, and avoid imitations.—Adv.

Grace, poise and carriage come sixth, in the opinion of the film executives, and a knowledge of drama is held an important asset if one is to reach the top.

A girl's environment is given rating, as the home life and surroundings of a potential actress carry much weight in the selection of an applicant.

Age ranks ninth, with education and training tenth.

Various ways of determining the qualifications are employed. At one studio the applicant walks the length of the employment manager's office and is scrutinized before speaking. A ruler is suspended from the wall, near the entrance. As the applicant passes it, the manager judges her approximate height. She is asked to remove her hat. Thus her style of hair dressing and the manner in which she takes off her hat are noted. Her carriage and poise are revealed when she is asked to get a book from a shelf.

A Trial Washing will Convince you

IN your own home you can test the MAYTAG. Do a week's washing without expense—without obligation.

Prove to your entire satisfaction that the MAYTAG will wash everything—the finest silks and laces—the heavy, bulky things—even such hard-to-wash things as grimy, greasy work-clothes. Wash the delicate laces and chiffons as gently as by hand. Wash everything so clean that hand-rubbing is not necessary—even collars, cuffs, wristbands.

Wash tubfuls of clothes sparklingly clean in 3 to 7 minutes. Do whole family washings—

50 lbs. of dry clothes—in an hour. Wash faster—easier than other washers—wash clothes cleaner.

The MAYTAG'S cast-aluminum tub is all clothes-space—all washing-room. It keeps water hot throughout an entire, big washing. Water stays clean because all dirt is held in the sediment trap beneath the gyrator. The tub cleans itself in 30 seconds after the washing is done.

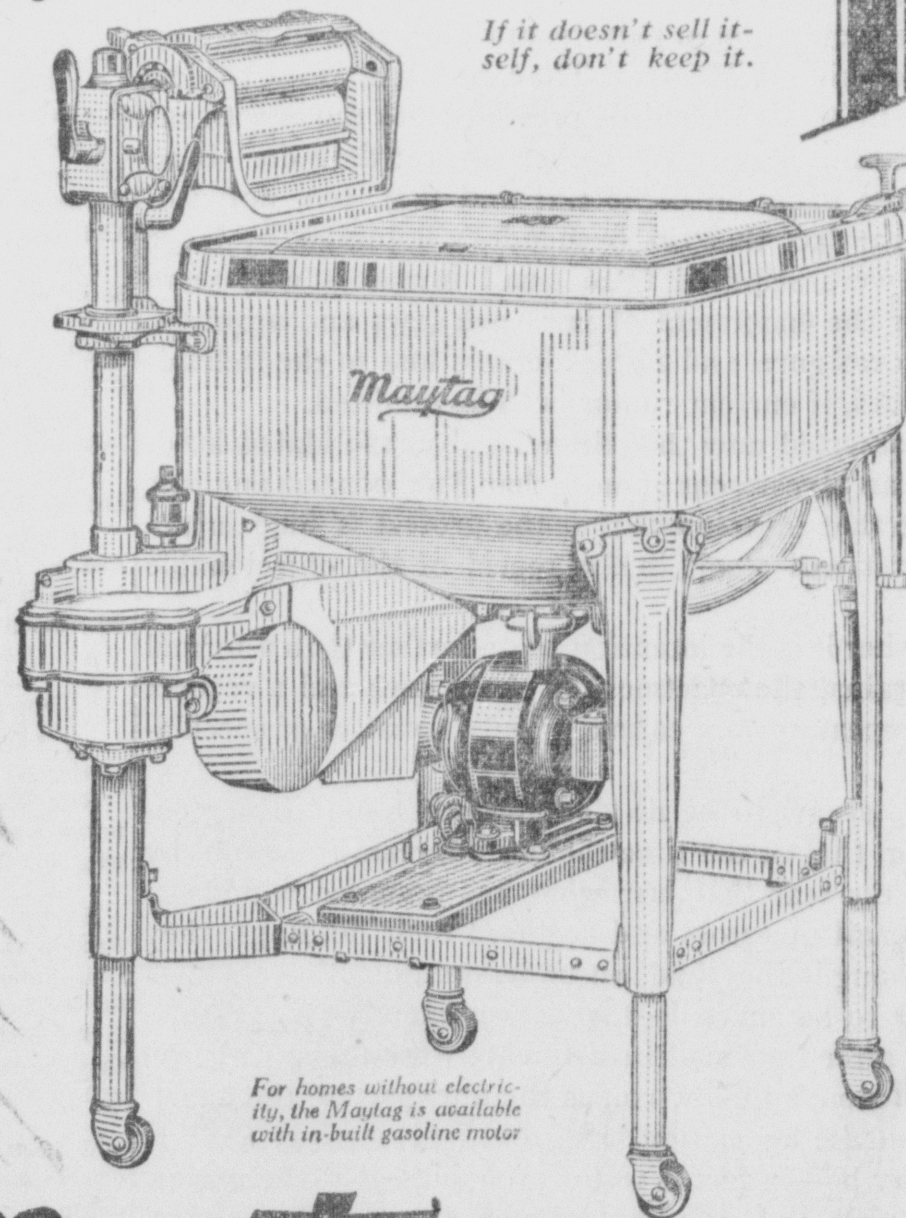

Phone us—let us deliver a MAYTAG for a thoroughly-convincing, right-in-your-own-home test.

*If it doesn't sell itself,
don't keep it.*

9 Outstanding Maytag Features

- 1—Washes faster. The Gyrofoam Principle creates a more highly energized, turbulent and continuously effective water action. No idle water.
- 2—Washes cleaner. The Gyrofoam Principle mixes the soap evenly throughout the water, and forces the super-cleansing, soapier washing solution through the meshes of the clothes. No idle suds.
- 3—Largest hourly capacity in world—50 lbs., ordinary family wash per hour. Tub holds 21 gallons—4 gallons more than ordinary washers.
- 4—Most compact washer made—takes floor space only 25 inches square.
- 5—Cast aluminum tub—can't warp, rust, rot, swell, split nor corrode.
- 6—Easily adjusted to your height, and height of tubs.
- 7—Clothes can be put in or taken out while washer is running.
- 8—Tub cleans itself in 30 seconds.
- 9—Metal swinging wringer. Low. Swings into 7 positions. Adjusts itself automatically for handkerchiefs or blankets. Automatic drainboard. Instant tension-release. All parts enclosed.

Don't Fuss With Mustard Plasters!

Musterole Works Without the Blister—Easier, Quicker
Don't mix a mess of mustard, flour and water when you can relieve pain, soreness or stiffness with a little clean, white Musterole.

Musterole is made of pure oil of mustard and other helpful ingredients, in the form of a white ointment. It takes the place of mustard plasters, and will not blister.

Musterole usually gives prompt relief from sore throat, bronchitis, tonsillitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet, colds of the chest (it may prevent pneumonia).

CONSIDER TRAINING UNIFORM OF BLUE

Washington.—(P)—A careful survey of American resources for the manufacture of khaki breeches has convinced army officials that if it became necessary to put a force of two million men into the field in less than eight months, most of them would have to fight in their shirt tails.

Faced by this appalling possibility, the industrial mobilization wing of the national defense planning machinery started a study of its own. It found that it would be entirely possible to completely uniform two million men from head to foot in fifteen days, provided blue cloth instead of khaki was used.

The trouble with the khaki outfit is that not enough cloth of that color is in ordinary civilian use. There are ample stocks of blue and gray, both wool and cotton fabric. The result has been the working out of a tentative blue training uniform which could be supplied in ample volume for a mobilization, to be discarded as units completed their preliminary preparation and moved out for final training near the zone of operations.

THIS IS THE LAST DISCOUNT DAY FOR GAS AND ELECTRIC LIGHT BILLS. CONSUMERS MAILING CHECKS POST-MARKED AFTER THE 10th ARE NOT ENTITLED TO DISCOUNTS.

By that time complete khaki outfits with tan leather trappings would be ready for them, giving them the necessary degree of low visibility in the field.

The contemplated blue training uniform would consist of a four button blouse, dressed with red shoulder knots to give a military touch, blue cloth overseas caps; blue breeches, tan canvas leggings of the lacing variety and black shoes. Tan shoes would be preferable, but the survey disclosed only a limited quantity of tan Munson last shoes in the market while there are always plenty of blacks to be had.

The matter has not passed as yet beyond a study stage in the War Department.

WINTER COLDS ARE DANGEROUS

The serious diseases that develop from simple coughs or colds make them dangerous and they should not be neglected. There is no better remedy for quick relief from coughs and colds than Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. "My grandchild could get no relief whatever from a very bad croupy cough, until I gave him Foley's Honey and Tar," writes Peter Landis, Meyersdale, Pa. Keep a bottle on hand for any emergency. Barbara still has about $5,000 shares of Woolworth stock remaining from her inheritance and the proceeds from the sale in the open market of 30,000 more of her shares about a year ago. With the increased valuation of her holdings her total inheritance is approximately $30,000,000, making her possibly the richest girl in the world.

FLOODS IN MEXICO CLAIM MANY LIVES

Santiago River Leaves Banks Causing Loss

(By Associated Press.)
Nogales, Arizona, Jan. 11.—Loss of life, due to floods in Mayat, Mexico, are estimated at between 200 and 300, dispatches received here today said. Following torrential rains the Santiago river left its bank, inundating rich agricultural sections and virtually wiping out a number of towns. Revised estimates of the flood loss place it at 5,000,000 pesos with the possibility that it will rise as reports continue to come in.

USE BRAY'S HILL FOR LONG COAST

Persons from this city beheld the unusual sight of youngsters coasting nearly a mile down Bray's hill, immediately east of Frankfort, Sunday.

The heavy coating of snow made coasting ideal, and some of the more venturesome of the youngsters would have a lookout stationed at the curve in the highway near the hill top, and when the lookout reported no machines coming up the hill, the boys would start their sleds, and shoot down the hill, coming to a stop nearly a mile distant.

Some of the coasters were fortunate enough to hook on behind high powered cars going up the hill, and thus saving themselves a long and tiresome walk to the top for the next slide.

For the benefit of autoists who wish to go over Bray's hill it may be stated that it is very little more dangerous with its coating of snow than without, in fact it is easier to come down the hill at present because the snow retards the progress of a machine.

RHEUMATISM

Why use mere temporary surface rubs, liniments, etc. for pains, twinges and soreness of rheumatism neuralgia, lumbago, sciatica, etc., when a famous old Dutch internal remedy, in easy-to-take, tasteless capsules, goes direct to the real internal cause in joints and muscles and removes it? Ask for Red Mill Hardem Oil. Costs only 50c, and results guaranteed or money back. All druggists.

"I DO NOT want to be thin! I just want to be my right weight! I want these hollows filled out. I just want enough firm, plump flesh on my bones to fill out my figure."

Of course you do. You want a figure that you can drape your clothes on—not just hang them on! What's the use of having pretty clothes, if they just hang on you?

And what would you say if you were told you could have the figure you want? A graceful, well rounded body—firm, solid flesh—just enough—just your right weight? You'd be mighty happy, wouldn't you?

Well, then, be happy—because you can have it! Put plenty of red cells in your blood and watch your weight go up to where you want it! That's what's the matter with you! Your blood is impoverished. You need more rich, red blood. S. S. S. is the thing to put red blood in your system. S. S. S. helps Nature build red blood cells by the millions.

You just try S. S. S. and watch how quickly you begin to fill out your clothes. Notice your skin clear of unsightly blemishes—your appetite increase—strength come to flabby muscles and vim and vigor fill your whole system. It's red blood that does it. And S. S. S. surely helps Nature build that red blood. S. S. S. is sold by all drug stores. The larger bottle is more economical.
